Dear Alan,

The Director of Military Intelligence at the War Office has written to us in the following terms.

"I should be grateful if you would convey the thanks of the War Office to the United States Monitoring Service in Okinawa for their help in the reception of British Prisoners-of-War broadcasts from Korea. These broadcasts have been of considerable comfort to the families of the men concerned, and on their behalf the War Office wishes to express its appreciation of the American efforts in overcoming the difficulties encountered."

We are, as you know, most grateful for all the help we have received from your people in Okinawa in this matter and I shall be grateful if you will pass on to your an appropriate message of thanks.

Yours sincerely,

M. A. Frost
Head of Monitoring Service.

Dear Alan,

I am very grateful for your letter of 31st January outlining your measures for speeding up the issues of coverage schedules. The proposals appear most satisfactory, and will be much appreciated by us.

Should it prove possible for the field bureaux to multiple-address their coverage changes direct to us, such a course would prove very valuable.

Yours sincerely,

M. A. Frost
Head of Monitoring Service.
